

TROUBLE WITH THE LAW?

Unique Barriers to the Criminal Justice
System for those with Disabilities

This workshop is for informational purposes only. SCDD cannot endorse private attorneys. Please contact the State Bar of California or the Orange County Bar Association for information on how to select an attorney.

TRAINING OBJECTIVE

Often crimes involving people with disabilities reveal the inequity surrounding access to justice.

This training will highlight surrounding issues and legal processes to increase awareness about interaction with law enforcement, address misconceptions about competency and provide advocacy strategies and resources.

PRESENTER

Sholeh Iravantchi, PsyD, Esq.

Ms. Iravantchi practices Criminal Defense law throughout Southern California. Prior to opening her private practice, she worked as a Public Defender representing clients that were placed in the criminal justice system as a result of their mental illness and/or disability.
